Requirements:
1. The program needs to input pseudo-English statements describing an amount of money in coins and convert it to a dollar amount.
2. Each sentence must follow the standard rules of English Grammar, except omission of ending punctuation.
3. Each sentence must contain must have the names of coins in it.
4. Each coin statement must be formatted like the following: "20 pennies" and can be linked together using "and". Ex: "20 pennies and 3 dimes"
5. The program will output the dollar amount to two decimal places representing dollars and cents.
6. The program must be written in Python.